

6 Reasons a Roth IRA May be a Good Idea for You or Someone You Love

It's almost tax time. During April, many people take advantage of the opportunity to reduce taxes by funding a Traditional IRA. While that makes sense for some Americans, others may benefit by contributing to a Roth IRA that offers no immediate tax break, but has other tax advantages, such as tax-free growth potential and tax-free income during retirement. Some people may realize the greatest benefit by having both types of IRAs.

Unfortunately, IRS contribution rules limit investors, who are younger than age 50, to making contributions of just $5,500 to all IRA accounts during 2015 and 2016. If you're age 50 or older, you can save $6,500.<sup>1</sup> Before making a 2015 contribution, consider the advantages of Roth IRAs, including:

- 1. Tax-free growth potential. You won't get a tax break today, but any earnings in a Roth IRA grow tax-free.<sup>2</sup>
- 2. Tax-free income. Distributions taken from a Roth IRA are tax-free, too, as long as certain requirements are met*.<sup>3</sup> That means the income from your Roth IRA is protected from future tax increases.<sup>2</sup>
- 3. No required minimum distributions. You can leave the money in your Roth IRA until your heirs inherit it. You can't do that with a Traditional IRA. At age 70½, you must take required minimum distributions (RMDs) from Traditional IRAs. Generally, RMDs are taxable and, if an RMD is not taken when it should be, a hefty penalty is assessed.<sup>4</sup>
- 4. Penalty-free early distributions. You don't have to be age 59½ to take a penalty-free distribution from a Roth IRA as long as the distributions are used for higher education costs, qualified home purchases, unreimbursed medical expenses, or specific other expenditures.<sup>3</sup>
- 5. Open an account at any age. Anyone, of any age, who has earned income, can open a Roth IRA. So, you can fund a Roth IRA for yourself any time. You can also fund one for a child or grandchild who works, and give him or her a head start on saving for retirement.<sup>5</sup>
- 6. Contribute as long as you work. While contributions to Traditional IRAs must stop at age 70½ (when RMDs begin), that is not the case with Roth IRAs. As a result, Roth IRAs provide legacy and estate planning advantages Traditional IRAs do not.<sup>6</sup>

If you're planning to open or fund an IRA before April 15 for yourself or someone you love, and you're not certain whether a Traditional or Roth IRA is the right choice, talk with your financial professional. He or she can review your portfolio and help determine which may best suit your needs.

Harris Wealth Management

*In general, a distribution from a Roth IRA is tax-free and penalty-free, as long as the account has been open for five years and the account owner is age 59½, has become disabled, is making a qualified first-time home purchase ($10,000 lifetime limit), or dies. Minimum required distributions do not apply to the original account owner, although they may apply to heirs.

The opinions voiced in this material are for general information only and are not intended to provide specific advice or recommendations for any individual. To determine which investment(s) may be appropriate for you, consult your financial advisor prior to investing.

There are hypothetical examples provided and they are not representative of any specific investment or scenario.

Interest income may be subject to the alternative minimum tax. Municipal bonds are federally tax-free but other state and local taxes may apply.

This is not intended to be a substitute for specific individualized tax advice. We suggest you discuss your specific tax issues with a qualified tax advisor.

The opinions voiced in this material are for general information only and are not intended to be a substitute for specific individualized tax or legal advice. We suggest that you discuss your specific situation with a qualified tax or legal advisor.

Securities offered through LPL Financial, member FINRA/SIPC.

Sources:

<sup>1</sup> <https://www.irs.gov/Retirement-Plans/Plan-Participant-Employee/Retirement-Topics-IRA-Contribution-Limits>

<sup>2</sup> <http://www.bankrate.com/finance/retirement/traditional-ira-vs-roth-ira-1.aspx>

<sup>3</sup> <https://www.irs.gov/publications/p590b/ch02.html>

<sup>4</sup> <https://www.irs.gov/Retirement-Plans/Retirement-Plans-FAQs-regarding-Required-Minimum-Distributions>

<sup>5</sup> <http://www.rothira.com/what-is-a-Roth-IRA>

<sup>6</sup> <http://time.com/money/4193253/kiddie-roth-ira-child-retirement-savings/>

Your Retirement Is My Priority!

Call Today To Schedule An Appointment

Harris Wealth Management

For most people, retirement is a once in a lifetime event. When you only get one chance to retire, experience counts. For more than 25 years, I have helped numerous clients prepare for and enjoy their retirement. "I have retired more than 200 times so you only have to retire once."® There are rarely second chances in life. When it comes to retiring, don't you deserve the financial confidence that you retired right the first time?

724.942.3300 www.harriswm.com

4160 Washington Road, Suite 1, McMurray, PA 15317

Securities And Advisory Services Offered Through LPL Financial, A Registered Investment Advisor • Member FINRA/SIPC

This Industry Insight was written by Edward J. Harris, CPA. For more than 25 years, Edward Harris has provided his clients with professional service in wealth planning, investments, tax planning and preparation, as well as estate planning. Ed is fully licensed as a Certified Public Accountant and LPL Investment Advisor Representative. To maintain his licenses, Ed upholds high ethical standards and meets the profession's rigorous requirements for ongoing education. He has access to variable annuities as well as accident, health, and long-term care insurance. For more information contact Edward Harris at 724.942.3300 or visit www.harriswm.com.