

Mazzarini Custom Jewelers

Your Source for Custom Jewelry for Less

For over 30 years, Dan Mazzarini has been creating some of the most unique jewelry pieces imaginable. So, it's understandable that he would want to stop working for someone else and go into business for himself. And, in April of this year, that's exactly what he did, bringing his talents and expertise to his hometown of Brentwood as the owner of Mazzarini Custom Jewelers.

"We do a lot of wholesale work and custom work here," Mazzarini said. "Working here in Brentwood, our overhead is low and it keeps costs way down compared to our more well-known competitors."

While you can get a stock piece that hundreds, if not thousands, of other people have from a competitor, at Mazzarini Custom Jewelers you're going to get a one-of-a-kind item in a timely manner.

"I specialize in revitalizing jewelry," Mazzarini says. "If you have an heirloom piece, for example, and you want the sentiment that it carries, but maybe not the style, I can redesign the piece for you and create something entirely new, or make it slightly different so it's still recognizable as Grandma's, but with today's look. And, we can do it in three weeks, not three months."

In addition to giving new life to older pieces, Mazzarini Custom Jewelers excels in everything you'd expect of a jewelry store: changing watch batteries, resizing bracelets and rings, custom engraving, all repairs, and cleaning – much of that work while you wait.

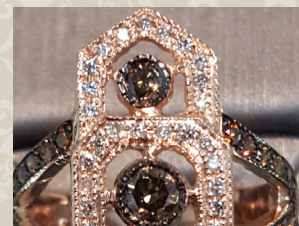

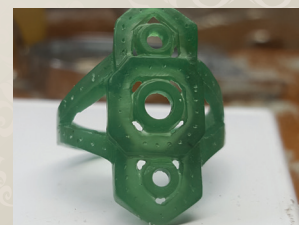

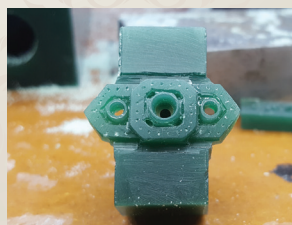

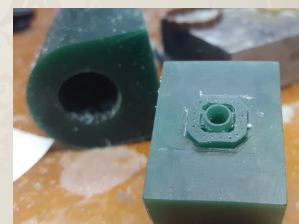

And, of course, if you're looking for exceptional prices on engagement rings, wedding rings, and everyday jewelry, Mazzarini Custom Jewelers is the place for you.

"We can get you a traditional piece and setting, or we can design something for you from the ground up so that it's 100 percent original and unique," Mazzarini explains. "The sky's the limit on what we can create from our clients' imaginations."

What's more, as a completely family-owned and operated business, the quality of work and customer service at Mazzarini Custom Jewelers cannot be beat.

"People get bored with what they see in 'big box' jewelry retailers because it's all the same," Mazzarini says. "You buy jewelry to make a statement about yourself, to stand out. It's hard to stand out when you're wearing the same piece that everyone else got at the mall. People don't think of getting a custom piece right off the bat because they think it will cost a lot more. I'm here to prove them wrong."
